

Is the Universe maintained by physics?

How did the Universe get into such an orderly state and how is that order maintained?

How does the concept of order bear directly upon the theory of evolution? What arguments exist to possibly support evolution in spite of the order we see?

Is order in the Universe breaking down? If it is, what does the break down say about the past and our future?

Thursdays at The Journey Church, 7 PM:

- June 16: Norm Crawford, MS, BS Aerospace Engineering
The Development of Order
Order is an observable characteristic of our universe. Order, however is not expected from chance random processes, but can only come from directed energy. Come see why order shows us that God must exist.
- July 21: Sal Giardina, MS Geology, BS Mechanical Engineering, Astronaut Scientist Candidate
The Illusion of Evolution's Deep Time
- Aug 18: Sal Giardina, MS Geology, BS Mechanical Engineering, Astronaut Scientist Candidate
TBA
- Sept 22: Joseph Kezele, MD, President AzOSA, Assistant Professor of Biology, AZ Christian University
The Eyes Have It! Fascinating unique features of eyes.
